St Mary's Hampton, St Joseph Black Rock and Stella Maris Beaumaris

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

26 JUNE 2022

Over these days in Rome the World Gathering of Families is taking place. A number of families from Australia are in attendance. At one Pope Francis' addresses at the Gathering, has reminded us to follow Christ, that 'We must live with our eyes pointed towards Heaven.' He asked Catholics these questions, 'What is the word that the Lord wants to say with our lives to the people we meet? What further step does He ask of our family today?' in other words: How do we, in our families, follow Christ?

In this week's Gospel, Jesus sets out for Jerusalem and asks His disciples to 'Follow Me.' When one of his disciples replies 'let me go and bury my father first' the response Christ gives could seem at odds with Jesus' teaching of love, and especially the commandment to 'honour your father and mother'. When Jesus says 'leave the dead to bury their dead' He is not suggesting the disciple dishonour his father, but is revealing to him a new family in which God is Father and we are all brothers and sisters thanks to our common faith in Christ. Indeed Jesus is not downplaying the importance of family, but is highlighting the importance of love for one another. In pointing out the demand to follow Him, He is putting all relationships in perspective. He is reminding us of the importance recognising our priorities. Indeed we are called to live that faith out and share that faith within the family. Jesus is only able to make such demands due to His authority as God - the Highest Good. To truly be able to love others, especially our families, is to first recognise the love of God, and to truly know God requires following Him. And for us all this points to the importance of prayer.

The mission the Pope sends families on is to pray together, as He said on Wednesday at the World Gathering of Families: 'Listen. Allow yourselves to be transformed by Him, so that you too can transform the world and make it a 'home' for those who need to be welcomed, for those who need to meet Christ and feel loved.' To listen to Christ and to be witness, with our family lives, to His Word: 'Each of your families has a mission to fulfil in the world, a witness to give.'

THE PARTS OF THE MASS

The Liturgy of the Word - The Readings

In the readings Christians come together to thank God for God's gifts. Listening to God's Word (the Bible) they grow in faith more conformed to the mind of Christ.

The First Reading: The first reading is mostly chosen from the Old Testament and during some seasons the Book of Acts might be read.

The Second Reading: This reading is also referred to as the Epistle. It is usually from one of the letters in the New Testament which may also include the Book of Acts or the Book of Revelations. While the letters address particular situations in the early Church, their message transcends the centuries to motivate contemporary Christians and deepen our appreciation of the mystery of Christ.

'In the readings, the table of God's word is prepared for the faithful, and the riches of the Bible are opened to them. Hence, it is preferable to maintain the arrangement of the biblical readings, by which light is shed on the unity of both Testaments and of salvation history. Moreover, it is unlawful to substitute other, non-biblical texts for the readings, which contain the word of God.

After each reading, whoever reads gives the acclamation, to which the gathered people reply, honouring the word of God that they have received in faith and with grateful hearts.' 57,59 GIRM

Prayer for the 10th World Meeting of Families

Heavenly Father, we come before You to praise You and to thank You for the great gift of the family.

We pray to You for all families consecrated by the Sacrament of Matrimony. May they rediscover each day the grace they have received, and as small domestic Churches, may they know how to witness to Your Presence and to the Love with which Christ loves the Church.

We pray to You for all families faced with difficulty and suffering caused by illness or circumstances of which only You know. Sustain them and make them aware of the path to holiness upon which You call them, so that they might experience Your infinite Mercy and find new ways to grow in love.

We pray to You for children and young people: May they encounter You and respond joyfully to the vocation You have in mind for them; We pray for parents and grandparents: May they be aware that they are signs of the fatherhood and motherhood of God in caring for the children who, in body and spirit, You entrust to them; for the experience of fraternity that the family can give to the world.

Lord, grant that each family might live their specific vocation to the holiness in the Church as a call to become missionary disciples, in the service of life and peace, in communion with our priests, religious, and all vocations in the Church.

Bless the World Meeting of Families. Amen

Love Your Neighbour

The reason for loving is indicated in the word "neighbour," because the reason why we ought to love others out of charity is because they are nigh to us, both as to the natural image of God, and as to the capacity for glory. Nor does it matter whether we say "neighbour," or "brother" according to 1 Jn. 4:21, or "friend," according to Lev. 19:18, because all these words express the same affinity.

The mode of love is indicated in the words "as thyself." This does not mean that a man must love his neighbour equally as himself, but in like manner as himself, and this in three ways. First, as regards the end, namely, that he should love his neighbour for God's sake, even as he loves himself for God's sake, so that his love for his neighbour is a "holy" love. Secondly, as regards the rule of love, namely, that a man should not give way to his neighbour in evil, but only in good things, even as he ought to gratify his will in good things alone, so that his love for his neighbour may be a "righteous" love. Thirdly, as regards the reason for loving, namely, that a man should love his neighbour, not for his own profit, or pleasure, but in the sense of wishing his neighbour well, even as he wishes himself well, so that his love for his neighbour may be a "true" love: since when a man loves his neighbour for his own profit or pleasure, he does not love his neighbour truly, but loves himself.
