

BAYSIDE CATHOLIC MISSION

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

10 JULY 2022

This Sunday we hear Jesus telling the beautiful parable of the Good Samaritan in response to the question, "Who is my neighbour?" In detailing the story of the care shown to the man in need, Jesus highlights the connection between love of God and love of neighbour. Pope Francis emphasises this also in his recent letter on the liturgy, "From Sunday to Sunday communion in the Body and Blood of Christ wants to make also of our lives a sacrifice pleasing to the Father, in the fraternal communion of sharing, of hospitality, of service." (n.65)

This coming week there will be change to the Mass schedule. See below, and next page:
Mon - St Mary's . Tues - Sacred Heart . Wed - St Joseph's . Thurs - Stella Maris . Fri - St Joan of Arc

Pope Francis from his recent letter, 'Desiderio Desideravi' on Liturgical Formation

Every gesture and every word contains a precise action that is always new because it meets with an always new moment in our own lives. I will explain what I mean with a simple example. We kneel to ask pardon, to bend our pride, to hand over to God our tears, to beg his intervention, to thank Him for a gift received. It is always the same gesture which in essence declares our own being small in the presence of God. Nevertheless, done in different moments of our lives, it moulds our inner depths and then thereafter shows itself externally in our relation with God and with our brothers and sisters. Also kneeling should be done with art, that is to say, with a full awareness of its symbolic sense and the need that we have of this gesture to express our way of being in the presence of the Lord. And if all this is true for this simple gesture, how much more will it be for the celebration of the Word? Ah, what art are we summoned to learn for the proclamation of the Word, for the hearing of it, for letting it inspire our prayer, for making it become our very life? All of this is worthy of utmost attention – not formal or merely exterior, but living and interior – so that every gesture and every word of the celebration, expressed with "art," forms the Christian personality of each individual and of the community (n. 53)
